

Curling Canada's Scholarship Program ELIGIBILITY & FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Thanks to the generosity of the curling community across the country, Curling Canada is thrilled to offer two streams of scholarships to young curlers pursuing their post-secondary education in the 2024-2025 academic year.

The 2024 Scholarships will be offered as follows:

Ten $2,500 For the Love of Curling Scholarships will be awarded to curling student-athletes who best demonstrate athletic and academic prowess as well as community leadership.

Ten $2,500 Fran Todd All Heart Scholarships that will be awarded to curling student-athletes who best demonstrate volunteer and community leadership to create meaningful change through sport.

Two of the twenty scholarships will be “presented by the Governor General's Curling Club”, as selected by their internal scholarship committee, for the curling student-athletes who best demonstrate athletic and academic prowess, as well as the values of the sport of curling, and community leadership.

General Information:

The “For the Love of Curling” Scholarship is intended for young Canadian athletes who excel in curling, maintain a good level of academic standing, and demonstrate a strong commitment to their community through involvement in coaching, instructing, and volunteer activities. The purpose is to give talented junior curling student-athletes the support to pursue their curling and academic dreams.

The Fran Todd All Heart Scholarship is intended for young Canadian athletes who embody the values of curling, place the highest priority on giving back to the sport, are passionate about sharing curling with their community, and maintain a good level of academic standing. The purpose is to give compassionate junior curling students the support to pursue their academic and community volunteer impact dreams.

Please read the Eligibility and Frequently Asked Questions document, in its entirety, prior to applying.
